SEC. ____ SENSE OF THE SENATE REGARDING THE ADOPTION AND DEPLOYMENT OF BROADBAND TECHNOLOGY.

It is the sense of the Senate that—

(1) sufficient resources should be provided for Federal agencies to exploit broadband technologies that—

(A) have the capability to electronically connect all Americans; and

(B) achieve greater applications and efficiencies for the economy, health care, public safety, and education;

(2) the United States Government should assess broadband deployment and adoption rates throughout the Nation to ensure that Federal initiatives are not redundant and are applicable to 21st Century requirements;

(3) the deployment and adoption of broadband technology has resulted in—

(A) enhanced economic development and public safety for communities across the Nation;

(B) improved health care and educational opportunities; and

(C) a better quality of life for all Americans;

(4) continued progress in the deployment and adoption of broadband technology is vital to ensuring that our Nation remains competitive and continues to create business and job growth;

(5) improving Federal data on the deployment and adoption of broadband service will assist in the development of broadband technology across all regions of the Nation;

(6) the Federal Government should—

(A) recognize and encourage complementary efforts by States to improve the quality and usefulness of broadband data; and

(B) encourage and support the partnership of the public and private sectors in the continued growth of broadband services and information technology for the residents and businesses of the Nation; and

(7) Federal broadband policies shall—

(A) continue to promote openness, competition, innovation, and affordable, ubiquitous broadband service for all individuals in the United States; and

(B) maintain the freedom to use for lawful purposes broadband networks without unreasonable interference from, or discrimination by, network operators.
